

Employers' Liability Policy Summary

The following is a summary of the key features, benefits, and significant limitations of the Employers' Liability policy provided by QUINN - Insurance. Full terms, conditions and exclusions of cover can be found in the policy document. This summary is intended as a generic document, the purpose of which is to outline the general scope of cover provided under our standard policy.

Policy type and cover provided

The policy provides employers' liability, as per the Employers' Liability Compulsory Insurance Act 1969, or similar provision applying in any amending or replacing legislation, to protect the insured against legal liability to pay compensation, claimants' costs and expenses in respect of bodily injury sustained by employees arising out of, and in the course of their employment. The standard duration of the policy is twelve months.

Significant Features and Benefits of the Policy

- Standard indemnity limit of £10 million.
- Provides cover for cross liability.
- Indemnity to principal, directors and employees.
- Covers legal defence costs in respect of any criminal proceedings brought under:
 - Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 (Section 36 or 37) or similar provision applying in any amending or replacing legislation.
 - Health and Safety at Work (Northern Ireland) Order 1978 (Article 34) or similar provision applying in any amending or replacing legislation.
 - Safety, Health and Welfare at Work Act 2005 or similar provision applying in any amending or replacing legislation.
- Policy provides cover as standard in Great Britain, Republic of Ireland, Northern Ireland, Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.
